This workshop is for any parents, caregivers and childcare professionals!

Children will experience and continue to experience so many new feelings and emotions throughout their life, and some can be more challenging to address than others. In the two-part series workshops, we explore why feelings are important and how you can support your child to develop their emotional intelligence.

If you are in need of accommodation or have any questions/concerns, please feel free to contact Kula Yang at kula.yang@wisc.edu or the Dane County Extension office at 608-224-3700. An EEO/AA employer, University of Wisconsin-Madison Division of Extension provides equal opportunities in employment and programming, including Title VI, Title IX, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act requirements.
